Things you may want to know this week

- 1. We celebrate “Juneteenth” on June 19. It has been celebrated annually on June 19 throughout the United States to commemorate the end of slavery. Yesterday, President Biden signed into law declaring Juneteenth (short for June 19th), as a federal holiday.
- 2. June 19, two transitional deacons of our Archdiocese will be ordained to the order of presbyters (priesthood) at St. Mary's Cathedral at 10AM. The soon-to-be priests are Cameron Pollette and Nick Case. Let's pray for more vocation to the priesthood and religious life.
- 3. Happy Father's Day! We thank and honor our fathers, who, despite their limitations and weaknesses, are trying their best to be a mirror of God's love for us. Let us pray for all our fathers that they may continue to be a reflection of God the Father's love and care for his children.
- 4. Maryknoll Father Robert Jalbert, MM, will be preaching about their missionary work at all the masses this Sunday. Let's give him a warm welcome and show our support to the missions with our prayers and monetary contribution.

Dear parishioners and friends of St. Robert's,

God gives many blessings in disguise.

In time, we realize, that everything and everyone we encounter are actually the Heavenly Father's blessings.

My wish and prayer for you and your loved ones:

May the Good Lord teach us patience with life, with people, and with oneself.

Try to SLOW DOWN and never push for answers before the time is right.

Trust God's sense of timing rather than one's own, and surrender one's will to His greater and wiser plan.

Happy Father's Day!

Fr. Arnold
