

Pastor's updates

May 14, 2021

Things you may want to know this week

1. This Saturday, May 15, is Peace Officers Memorial Day. According to my "friend" Wikipedia, "Peace Officers Memorial Day and Police Week is an observance in the United States that pays tribute to the local, state, and federal peace officers who have died, or who have been disabled, in the line of duty. It is celebrated May 15th of each year." Let us remember in our prayers all the police officers in our parish living and dead. The best way to honor them is to pray for them.

2. Eighteen (18) kids from both the school and Religious Program (CCD) will receive their First Communion this Saturday, May 15, at 1PM. This will be our third First Communion this year. Congratulations to all the kids and their parents.

3. We have two children's baptisms this weekend, this Saturday for NAZARIA BALUYOT and Sunday, for KAILA RAE QUEZON. These babies will be officially called Christians through this Sacrament of Initiation. These two babies will be the first recipients of the new baptismal "bibs" that were just purchased. They look like baby bibs but they are called baptismal garments, the piece of cloth that we put on the baby's body to symbolize their new life in Christ. Welcome to our Catholic Faith!

4. Our school had an election last week for next year's Student Council. Here are the results: President - Camila Gomez, Vice President - Tamer Muhawieh, Safety- Bobby Gomez, Secretary - Liala Kinchen, Treasurer- Reina Caoili, Boys Athletics - Brody Ogden, Girls Athletics - Tessa Carbone, Spirit - Emilia Singer, Religious Affairs- Brandon Collins and Publicity- Selena Hishmeh & Presley Rohatch. Congratulation and thank you for your service.

5. More and more parishioners are now attending our weekend services. We looked at the increasing numbers for the last four weekends, 362, 396, 437, 483. We are delighted with this development. I hope to see more people and get to know them in the coming days.

FAZnotes
(Father Arnold Zamora)
May 14, 2021

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Roberts,

Many times, the things we complain about are the good things.

We grumble about having too much work while others don't even have any work.

We complain waking up early in the morning when others don't even have a reason to live.

We complain about gaining weight when others don't even have food on their tables.

Everyday, the Lord fills our lives with so much goodness.

All we need to do is open our eyes and give thanks for each of them...

Have a fruitful day!

Fr. Arnold