Things you may want to know this week

1. A NOTE OF THANKS! Last Thursday, February 10, I went to the school for the purpose of meeting with Dr. Sullivan. As I entered the building, the Kindergarten class and the Student council greeted me with a resounding "Happy Birthday!" What a great surprise! Vice-Principal Michael Garcia escorted me to every classroom with the students presenting me their handmade personal cards. Thanks to all who greeted me that day. I thank God always for the blessings that St. Robert's parish brings me each day.

2. This Sunday, February 13, is World Marriage Day! Married Couples, it is your day. Celebrate it with love, and thank you for being the symbol of Christ's love to his church.

3. Two seminarians belonging to our Archdiocese of San Francisco will give a talk about vocation this weekend at our masses. They are Jeff Cano (Pre-Theology II) and Stephen Unachukwu, (Theology III).

Is God calling you to the priesthood or religious life? Do you know somebody who is considering the vocation to the priesthood. If so, please invite them to the Archdiocesan "Discernment Retreat" at St. Patrick's Seminary on February 25-27, 2022. Bishop Tom Daly will be the conference speaker.

4. Women's Guild next meeting is this Wednesday with a Bingo Night.

Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

LOVE is not about dates and gifts,
but it's about just being happy with each other!

It's not about the time you spent to each other but it's the time you wish you are together...

It's not about the promises,
but how much you've done...

It's not about the number of years you are together,
but it's the number of your happy moments...

It's not about planning the future,
but just living life and finding out you're still together in the end!

Happy Valentines Day!
Fr. Arnold
