Things you may want to know this week

1. Welcome Fr. Efren Bongay to St. Robert's! Fr. Efren is the Vicar for Clergy and the Rector of the Cathedral of St. Joseph, of the Diocese of Tagbilaran, which is the diocese of origin of Fr. Boie and myself. He was also my student in the seminary. He will be with us for a month. We have more priests visiting this month on their way to our annual Priest Reunion in L.A. at the end of this month. If you remember, we hosted this reunion last year.

2. Our hardworking St. Robert's School principal, Dr. Patrick Sullivan, continues to work during his summer break. Currently, he is supervising the installation of new security cameras for our school. Earlier this week, he announced four new faculty members:

Darin Little, Resource Specialist: He worked in counseling, teaching, and as an Academic Resource Specialist at Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory in San Francisco for 11 years. For the past four years, he taught English Language Development to newcomers at Galileo High School.

Mrs. Daphne Ruiz, First Grade Teacher: She's been teaching elementary level for 14 years in different countries such as Singapore, Philippines, Thailand and Australia. She also taught in private schools, international schools and Catholic schools in the past.

Ms. Natalie Fregoso, Fifth Grade Homeroom Teacher: Natalie attended San Francisco State University for her undergraduate studies in the fields of English Literature, and Women and Gender Studies. She is finalizing her multi-subject teaching credential at San Francisco State University, and has taught at several schools.

Edgar Ceja, Religious Director and Religion Teacher: Edgar was the 8th grade homeroom and junior high religion teacher at All Souls School and was involved in the St. Matthew youth Confirmation program for a number of years..

Welcome to St. Robert's School and to our parish!

3. Congratulations to the soon-to-be married couple Lauren Clifford and Brandon Meyer. I will be presiding over their wedding tomorrow morning. Lauren is a graduate from St. Robert's School and the daughter of our parishioners Ann and Tony Clifford. Ann is our school Science Teacher, and Tony is one of our Lectors and a member of our Parish Finance Council. Congratulations also to the proud parents!
