Things you may want to know this week

1. It's another new month - September "when summer is gone," as the favorite song goes. Msgr. Jeffrey Malanog, our guest and assisting priest for the Summer, is also gone. He left last night for the Philippines. Fr. Boie Espeleta, our parochial vicar, is still gone on vacation. I will be by myself for the next two weeks. Thanks to Fr. Stewart Wilber for volunteering to say the 7:30a.m. Sunday Mass and 8:15a.m. Mass on Monday which is my day-off to give me more time for my devotion to "Our Lady of the Pillow."
2. The Second Collection for the first Sunday of the month is for our St. Robert's School and Parish Religious Education program or CCD. This Sunday, our 8th graders will be selling hotdogs, chips and water for $5 after the 9:30a.m. and 11:30a.m. Masses as one of their fundraising efforts for their D.C. trip next year. Please support our students. Make sure to bring cash this Sunday.
3. The Archdiocese of San Francisco Catholic Charismatic Renewal is hosting the 26th Annual Holy Spirit Conference on September 16, 2023 at St. Mary's Cathedral. Please see the poster below for more detail.
4. Our monthly Grief Support Meeting will be held on Thursday, September 7, at 9:15a.m., in the Convent. The meeting is open to all who are grieving the loss of a loved one. For more information, please email: Judy Kerrigan - srconsolationmin@att.net.

Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

Happy First Day of the Month!

"I'll see you in September when Summer is gone!"

Make friends!

In our parish, good relationships are built.

Treasure the people who became your friends at St. Roberts or in your own circle of friends.

One day our children will see our pictures and ask 'Who are these people?'

And we will smile with invisible tears because a heart is touched with a strong word and you will say: 'IT WAS THEM THAT I HAD THE BEST DAYS OF MY LIFE WITH'.

Be blessed and be a blessing,

-Fr. Arnold
