Things you may want to know this week

- 1. STOP! LOOK and GO! The newly installed traffic lights at the corner of Oak and Crystal Springs Rd, just in front of the church, are now in full operation. No more blinking red lights, and no more Stop signs; now look up and obey the traffic lights. Be alert for pedestrians, just the same.
- 2. We had a Parish Finance Council meeting last Wednesday. Praise God that both the parish and school are in good financial shape. Although we are lagging in our Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, we are still only halfway to our goal. Last year we made a little surplus of $5,103 which went back to the parish. Please pray that we can continue with the trend, or better yet, beat it this year.
- 3. Fr. Boie and I will be attending the annual Paring Bol-anon USA-ANADA reunion next week in the tri-cities of Washington DC, Maryland and Virginia. While I will still be here to say the Monday and Tuesday morning Masses, Fr. Chinonso Okoroichi will be the celebrant for Masses on Wednesday and Thursday, and Fr. Alejandro de Jesus for the Friday Mass. Both priests are assigned at Holy Angels Church in Colma.

Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

Cherish things while they are still ours...

Cherish people while they are still around...

Cherish precious moments while we are still able to enjoy them.

Always be a blessing to others!

May GOD bless you and your loved ones.

May you have a pleasant and stress-free weekend!

Be blessed and be a blessing!

Fr. Arnold
