

Thank you

Dear Friends,

The fog has lifted; the sun is shining. We are sitting on our deck sipping Pineapple Hawaiian tea. Here we reminisce about our Dads and share a few fond memories;

GENE: My life with my Dad is similar to many who were born just before and during the Depression era. I saw very little of Dad because he had to work two jobs to support his family. He took us to 8 a.m. Mass each Sunday. No matter how bad the Minnesota weather was, we never missed! On every Christmas Eve, Dad and I had to go downstairs to "fix" the furnace. Somehow Santa always came and left before we got back upstairs. During the summer, Dad,, in his 1933 Chevy, would drive a full and cozy carload—my Mom, sister Helen and brother Larry, Uncle George, Aunt Albie and cousin Darlee—sixty miles to the farm where the rest of our family lived.

During his later years, after my Mom was diagnosed with Alzheimer's, Dad devotedly cared for her all by himself; never letting on what a heavy toll this took on him. To Dad, this was no burden; Mom was the woman he had loved for almost 60 years. Though Dad wasn't much of a hugger, at the airport returning home from our last visit with him, he hugged us like we had never been hugged before. Two months later his heart gave out and he went home to our Heavenly Father.

ANNA MAY: Here are a few of my favorite things: Awakening to Dad's rendition of "O, What a Beautiful Morning: to get us up for Sunday Mass...Racing to the door to greet him at exactly 6 o'clock every evening with the shout: "Daddy's home!"...His twinkling blue eyes and joyous grin as he kissed each of us "Hello"...The birthday parties, Easter-egg hunts, Sunday picnics, his teaching us how to float in the Russian River, Christmas mornings...His unflinching faith and trust in God...After listening to a Gospel reading, my 4 year-old daughter Shirley telling me: "Mommy, you know what? That Good Shepherd is just like Grandpa"...The love that shone in his eyes every time he looked at our Mom....His total commitment of his family...When he squeezed my arm and exclaiming: "Thank God for Gene May" as he walked me down St. Robert's aisle....Delighting in him and my Mom (still so much in love) at their 70th anniversary party...He whisper to me: "I love you" the day before he died.

Thank you, Lord, for giving us Charlie May and Joe McKeever. They were men we could rely on, our shelter in every storm. They were always there to pick us up and wipe away our tears. We knew that, next to our Moms, to them we were what life is all about. Their love is a living example of the abiding love that God, our Father, has for each of us.

We wish a Blessed and Happy Father's Day to all fathers—those still here among us and those whom, on eagle's wings, Our Father has brought to Himself.

Gene and Anna May

Living the Liturgy

What A Day!

Our 50th Anniversary celebration last Sunday was outstanding! The choir, so well-rehearsed by Kevin Imbimbo and Pat Vallez Kelly, and accompanied by piano, flute, trumpet and bass, was glorious! The presence of Archbishop Niederauer, Fathers Vincent Ring, Jim Morris, Paul Rossi, Joseph Hung, and Tom Hamilton plus our own priests and deacons personified the wonderful leadership, past and present, with which our parish has been blessed. It was great to see so many who were here 50 years ago – some still active in the parish, others returning for the celebration – as they renewed decades-old friendships. Fr. Bruce reminded us of our call to be Church, to build on the strong foundation laid by the steadfast faith of those who have gone before us. We are a welcoming and supportive community and we reach out to care for those in need. The hall was abuzz with conversation over the beloved parishioners in the photos, video and movie footage. Many thanks to Kathy Hanley, Virginia and Joe Yanke and their crew who put in countless hours preparing such a thoughtful tribute to the dedicated parishioners of the past half century. Liturgy booklets with marvelous photos and a history of the parish and anniversary buttons are available in the vestibule this weekend for those of you who were not able to be present. Thank you to everyone who helped make our celebration a memorable one!

And on to the next 50 years...

The gospel today has Jesus telling the disciples, "Ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." I'm aware of some religious and priests who have entered from our parish: Mercy Sisters Mary Waskowiak and Anne Murphy; Jesuit Father Jim Schaukowitch; and San Jose diocesan priest, Fr. Francis Cilia. [If you are aware of others, could you please contact me? Thank you.] And where will the next generation of priests and religious come from? [I'll let one of our deacons raise the question of deacons for the future.] Parents and grandparents, if the young adult in your family enjoys serving others, values his/her faith and is basically healthy, could you please ask if he or she has ever considered being a sister, priest or brother?

With the great example of so many fine priests and religious in our parish, the idea might have crossed someone's mind. Years ago, a survey found that many young people never even considered the possibility because no one ever mentioned it. I refuse to believe that young people aren't as generous as in the past or that God is no longer calling anyone to these particular ways of life, but we need to do our part. If you have questions, please ask any of us on staff and we'll gladly share our experiences. 40 years later, with everything that has happened in the Church and the world, I still feel blest to be a Franciscan Sister. Peace, S. Sheral

The Festival is Coming!!!!
September 19th-21st

Believe it or not but plans are under way for this year's annual parish festival "Pirates of the Caribbean", which will be on September 19th-21st, and as always the Barbeque and Food Booths are in need of your help. Several people are needed to work in these two very popular booths and everyone from the parish is welcome to help. Most shifts are for 2 hours, but you can work for as many hours as you would like and on all 3 days if you wish.

The menu will include those all time favorites-delicious barbequed tri tip steak sandwiches, hamburgers, cheeseburgers, hot dogs, polish sausages, pizza, nachos, soft drinks, candy and much more.

If you would like to work in either of these booths or can help in any way, please contact Louise and Ray Downs or Raquel and Jeff Downs at www.noniepapadowns@aol.com or call them at (650) 588-1927 as soon as possible.
