Dear Parishioners,

Peace in the Lord Jesus!

About a month ago I made an announcement that Archbishop George Neiderauer has appointed me to be the pastor of St. Patrick Church in San Francisco effective July 1, 2012. Even if this was a surprise and unexpected, I humbly accepted my new assignment. The three years of my ministry here at Saint Robert's have been fulfilling and rewarding. My service here as pastor has been an enriching experience that I will always value for the rest of my life. This would not have been possible if not for your hospitality, generosity and cooperation. And so I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of you, to the parish and school staff, to the many volunteers who have been very helpful in my ministry here and of course, to our parishioners who have been very welcoming and supportive of me. I could never thank you enough.

It's not easy to say good bye, especially when one has come to learn to love the people and the place. But my ministry calls for me to move on and to face new challenges as a pastor in the service of God and his people elsewhere. I am leaving Saint Robert's with a grateful heart. I ask that we continue to pray for one another, because wherever we may be, we are always companions in our faith journey.

I am certain that you will welcome your new pastor, Father John Greene, with open arms. I pray that he too, might have a fulfilling and enriching ministry here at Saint Robert's. More power to Saint Robert's parish and school community and may God bless you always.

Sincerely,

Father Obet A. Andrey

Our Help Needed!

The gospel last Sunday spoke of the kingdom of God, comparing it to seeds and the fruit they produce. Jesus is reminding us that small, loving actions are important. Last summer, your generosity produced healthy food for more than 100 hungry families in San Bruno. This summer, the same families have the option of receiving food from Family Harvest and/or CalFresh (food stamps), thanks to Second Harvest Food Bank.

But Peter Steihler needs our help this summer for the guests of the San Bruno Catholic Worker. Please bring any of the following items to the boxes in the vestibule: canned fruit, canned soup, coffee, creamer and sugar, and sliced bread.

If you'd like to make a monetary donation, please put it in an envelope, clearly mark it Catholic Worker and place it in the collection

You may have also heard that the blood bank is very low. If you can give blood, please call 888-393-GIVE to make an appointment in Millbrae. Thanks very much! S. Sheral
