Dear Parishioners,

Happy Mother's Day! May we celebrate all the women who've given us birth, who've birthed our faith or given us a positive sense of ourselves and our potential! It really does take a village to rear a child, so may we thank all the women who've been part of our village. (On Father's Day, of course, we ought to thank all the men who've given us the same wonderful gifts!)

Those of us who are hale and hearty, at least most of the time, might not have great appreciation for those of us who suffer the limitations which often come as we age. Last Saturday, I sprained my ankle coming out of the house which I share with three other Franciscans. Now I have a much greater sense of what many of you go through all the time. You have to plan for extra time to do anything involving walking and you need to take each step carefully. And you have the challenge of saying "Yes" to the person who offers to help you when you'd rather do whatever it is yourself.

How easily I can take for granted that I can move about easily without really paying attention! I try to remember to thank the checkout person who lets the customer ahead of me slowly count out her or his payment in coins and graciously waits.

This Ascension Sunday, we, like the first disciples, are promised the Holy Spirit. May the Spirit help us to be compassionate towards those who are not quite as able as some of us are.

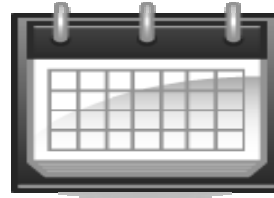

Peace, Sheral
