Dear Parishioners,

As you are reading this letter I'm just returning from Denver, Colorado. I flew there on July 4th. I planned this trip after I received a phone call from a long lost buddy. Jim and I became friends when I was in kindergarten and we were classmates all through high school. After high school we went to different colleges and entered different branches of the armed forces. Then we just lost contact.

You can imagine the surprise I felt when there was a message at the rectory from him. About two years ago there was an article about me blessing motorcycles in the San Francisco Catholic. Well recently Jim was home bound after a minor injury and he started looking up people from school on the internet. I don't have a Facebook or Twitter accounts so he had to look pretty hard. Anyway he came across that article and I flew to see him and his wife after exchanging a couple of short emails.

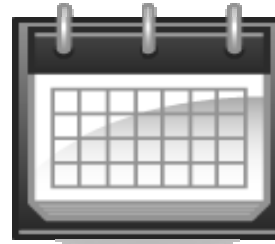

I can't tell yet how the meeting went but as I was writing this I was anxious to see him. May I invite you to think of someone you haven't heard from in awhile and try to contact them? It could be a relative, friend or former neighbor. It made my day hearing from Jim. Maybe you can make someone's day by reaching out to them.

Blessings

Deacon Rusty Duffey

Without both there are no Missions."
