Dear Friends,

On this glorious Indian Summer day, I sit here on our deck, sipping Vanilla Chai tea. My thoughts return to that October morning, seven years ago when Jesus took my husband Gene home. On that day, I cried: "How can I live without Gene?" Time went by. Slowly I discovered, if we but trust in Him, Our Merciful Lord gives us the hope and strength we need to go on and eventually re-experience joy. As today's Psalm tells us: "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; and those who are crushed in spirit He saves."

On Tuesday we will celebrate the Feasts of All Saints and on Wednesday - All Souls. November is the month in which we remember and honor those we love who have gone before us. The death of someone we love leaves us with so many different thoughts and feelings. Thinking about them and praying for them helps us to accept and heal. Now is our time to remember and thank our God for them; for the happiness they brought into our lives: the moments we shared; the kind, loving things they said and did; the twinkle in their eyes; their contagious smile; their laughter and the warm touch of their hand. Deep within our hearts, we know that they are not really gone. Love never dies. Our beloved remain always with us.

Before He ascended into heaven, Jesus told us: "I go now to prepare a place for you so that where I am you too shall also be." When sadness enters our hearts, let us remind ourselves of what God has promised: "Our tears will be turned into laughter". The day will come when we will be together again for all eternity. With absolute trust, let us open our hearts to Our Father. He will lovingly comfort us and fill us with His peace.

Consolation Support Group

The Fall Season is usually a very difficult one for those grieving. The Consolation Support Group is offering a special session to help you on your grief journey; to share with you some helpful coping skills. This is a time to pray, reflect, to talk and share on Thursday morning November 3, 2016 after the 8:30 a.m. Mass. All are welcome.

For more information e-mail Sister Patricia O'Sullivan -- posullivan3@juno.com or call 650-763-8822.
