Dear Friends,

Sitting here on Gene's deck, refreshed by the sweet fragrance of jasmine, I sip Earl Grey tea and reflect upon the readings for Tuesday, the 4th of July. Matthew's Gospel is most reassuring. Jesus and His friends are in a boat tossed about by a violent storm. Jesus is asleep. His friends come to Him saying: "Lord, save us! We are perishing!" Jesus says to them: 'Why are you terrified, O you of little faith?' Then He got up, rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was great calm."

This week, we celebrate the Birth of our Nation. We ask God to bless America. The desire of our hearts, and that for which we pray, is that peace will flourish in our country and in our world. To live in peace, each of us needs to have peace within our own heart. We cannot allow the anger and violence brought into our home through our television sets overwhelm us and disturb our peace. We can turn off our TV set and sit quietly, asking Jesus to help us reach deep within ourselves, where we will find the Peace of Christ. It is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit which we received at our Baptism. It is still there! Jesus could not have calmed the storm if He did not have peace within Himself. His peace brought calm to all who followed Him. His peace will bring calm and peace to us who, in these stormy times, listen to His Word and follow Him by truly loving our God and our neighbor.

When we have peace within ourselves, our home will be a loving shelter for our spouse and for our children. If anger and hatred are contagious, are not also love and peace contagious? With the help of the Holy Spirit, together we can stir up a groundswell of love and peace, starting with ourselves; spreading to our families, to our parish, to our workplace, to our city, state, nation and to all the world. As the hymn proclaims: "Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me!"

Anna May

The Parish Office will be closed on Tuesday, July 4th, in observance of Independence Day.
Happy 4th of July!
