Dear parishioners and friends of St. Roberts,

Our life on earth is always a blessing no matter how difficult things turn out.

A blessing to our family, to our loved ones and friends.

No matter how difficult or challenging we may find life to be sometimes, it is still better just to be here, living our life's purpose than not to have existed at all.

Worries and tensions are like the birds. You cannot stop them from flying near but you can certainly prevent them from making a nest in your mind.

Let us live inspiring lives and continue to touch other people's lives by our kindness, humility, compassion, forgiveness, love and prayers

Nothing is more important than being an instrument of God's caring for others!

A blessed Day!

Fr. Arnold

Rite of Sending

On the First Sunday of Lent, we had the Rite of Sending for our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) candidates at the 9:30AM mass. Nigel and Haley Staples (Father and daughter) are preparing for baptism and full communion into the Catholic Church. Jessica De Paz is beginning her final preparation for the sacraments of the Eucharist and Confirmation. Roberto Flores is beginning his final preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation. Jessica and Roberto are getting married this year.

Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

Our Archdiocesan Annual Appeal (AAA) launched last weekend. Most of you must have received my "love" letter. What is love after all but the giving of oneself for the beloved - just as Christ gave his life for us. Your support of His Church is a gesture of your love. Discover the many good things God has done for you. Share your blessings in return. I have every hope that all will respond to this year's theme - "As I have done for you, you should do also."

Invitation

During this season of Lent, I invite you to celebrate the Mass meditatively. Start by gazing at the Crucified Christ as the Cross (crucifix) passes by you during the processional rite as we sing our Entrance song. Then listen attentively to the readings and homily. Reflect on how you can assimilate the lessons in your daily life.
