Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

Don't think of the things that we didn't get after praying.
Think of the countless blessings God gave we without asking.

The happiest people don't have the best of everything.... they just make the best of everything they have.

Sometimes the reason GOOD THINGS are not happening to us is because WE are the good thing that needs to happen to OTHER PEOPLE!

A Blessed Trinity Sunday!
Happy Father's Day!

Be Blessed and be a blessing,

Fr. Arnold

Father's Day

G.P.'s Music Corner

June 15, 2025

The Most Holy Trinity

The Feast of the Holy Trinity invites us into the mystery of God as a perfect communion—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—bound together in love and unity. In a beautiful and profound way, the work of the music ministry reflects this same mystery. Just as the Trinity is three distinct persons working in perfect harmony as one, music in the liturgy brings together many voices, instruments, and expressions into a unified offering of praise.

In the Catholic liturgy, music is never just decoration—it is prayer. It lifts the heart, expresses the inexpressible, and draws the assembly into deeper unity with God and with one another. Music gives voice to the Church's love, sorrow, hope, and joy, echoing the relational love of the Trinity. When the music ministry serves the liturgy with humility and beauty, it does what the Trinity does: it brings forth life, inspires communion, and reveals the presence of God.

On Trinity Sunday, we are reminded that music is not merely sound—it is a spiritual act that mirrors divine harmony, calls us into deeper mystery, and helps the Church sing its way into the heart of the Triune God.
