FAZ NOTES

FR. ARNOLD ZAMORA
ST. ROBERT'S SAN BRUNO

Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

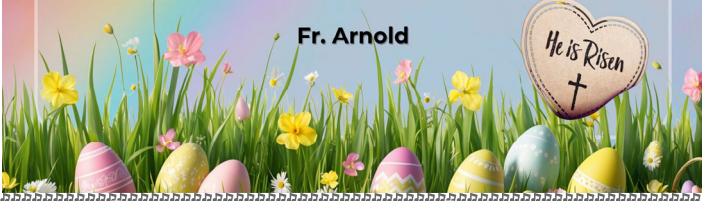

I asked GOD: "why do YOU have to create hurt and pain?
Why not all joy, laughter and cheers?"

GOD said: "My child, when you're happy sometimes you forget me. I let you experience pain for you to remember ME. Through pains, I'm making you a fighter, and the more you are hurt, the stronger you become." Always remember that whatever may happens, it always happens with a purpose. GOD ALWAYS GIVE A RAINBOW AFTER THE RAIN!... After Good Friday comes Easter!

Happy Easter and Thank GOD Always!

Be Blessed and Be a Blessing,

Fr. Arnold

Easter Sunday Reflection

As we arrive at Easter Sunday and step back to take in the whole of Holy Week, we see more than a sequence of liturgies. We witness the Church walking the full path of the Paschal Mystery: from the solemn entry of Palm Sunday, through the intimacy of the Last Supper, into the stark silence of Good Friday, and finally into the radiant hope of the Resurrection.

Holy Week is never only something we remember. It is something we live together.

This year, I find myself especially grateful. After years of patient and often quiet work, St. Robert's has built something beautiful: a true community of volunteer musicians and ministers who consistently and prayerfully serve at our Masses. What sustained our Holy Week liturgies was not simply planning or preparation. It was the generous yes of many volunteers who gave their time, their talent, and their hearts.

Our Holy Week quite literally ran on the power of volunteerism. That is not a small thing. It is one of the clearest signs that our parish is alive.

In the Passion, we see Christ pour himself out completely in love. In the Resurrection, we see that love vindicated and made victorious. Every act of faithful service in the Church participates in that same mystery. Whenever members of the Body of Christ give themselves freely for the good of the community, the life of the Risen Lord becomes visible in our midst.

At St. Robert's, that life is visible in the voices that sing, the hands that serve, and the quiet dedication of so many who show up week after week.

As we celebrate Easter, may we give thanks for the volunteers who helped carry us through this sacred week. And may the joy of the Resurrection continue to strengthen our parish, so that what we have built together in faith, service, and music may keep proclaiming the living Christ to all. Alleluia. He is risen.
