FAZ NOTES

FR. ARNOLD ZAMORA
ST. ROBERT'S SAN BRUNO

September 4, 2026

Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

"I'll see you in September when summer is gone!"

MEMORIES are always special. Sometimes we LAUGH by remembering the days we CRIED and we cry by remembering the days we laughed. That's LIFE!

Life is like a sea. We are moving without end. Nothing stays with us. Only memories of some people who touched us as waves. Just continue making memories!

Be blessed and be a blessing,

-Fr. Arnold

G.P.'s Music Corner

September 6, 2026
23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever found yourself in a difficult conversation where you had to bridge a divide or clear the air? Today's readings focus on reconciliation, mutual responsibility, and the quiet strength of praying together. When Jesus tells us that He is present wherever two or three gather in His name, He invites us to bring our authentic selves to the altar. We gather today singing Here at This Table, acknowledging that God's grace welcomes every one of us. As we prepare our gifts with How Great Thou Art and receive the Eucharist with Come to Me and Drink, we are nourished by Christ's mercy. As we are sent forth with Rain Down, may God's peace and healing pour into our homes and daily relationships throughout the week.

You will also hear some new music during the liturgy. We recently introduced a new setting of the Glory to God and Lamb of God, both composed by our pastor, Fr. Arnold Zamora. In the coming weeks, we will also begin introducing new versions of the Sanctus, Memorial Acclamation, and Great Amen. On a personal note, today happens to be my birthday. I always find it special when my birthday falls on a Sunday with our parish family. I would deeply appreciate your prayers today, and please know that I promise to continue praying for all of you as well.
