NOVEMBER 8, 2026
32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Selected Song: Abide with Me (BB 630)

Life rarely slows down on its own, and the weight of prolonged stress can leave us feeling spiritually depleted. This Sunday's scriptures speak directly to that exhaustion, reminding us to seek the steady wisdom of God who meets those who vigilantly watch for Him. At the Preparation of the Gifts, we sing "Abide with Me," a hymn written out of physical frailty and the acute awareness of time slipping away. It acknowledges that worldly helpers fail and earthly comforts fade, turning instead to the one presence that remains constant through every trial.

Within the liturgy, music carves out an intentional stillness where we can face reality without fear. Singing "Abide with Me" gives us space to hand over the burdens we carry before approaching the altar. During the work week, when change feels unsettling or loneliness creeps in after a long day, remembering this song anchors us in the truth that God does not abandon us when darkness falls.
